THE COMING ELECTION FOR LORNE

We publish in this issue a resolution signed by the most influential and leading residents of Prince Albert, addressed to D. H. Macdowall, Esq., of the firm of Moore & Macdowall, requesting him to come forward as a candidate at the forthcoming election of a member to represent us in the North West Council. In our last issue we published the card of the Hon. Lawrence Clarke, in which he expressed his decision not to solicit the support of the electors, partly from the multiplicity of his business duties, Mr. Clarke finds himself unable to allow himself to be placed in nomination, a matter of regret to all of his supporters at the last election and to many of his opponents as well, who willingly bear witness to his public spirit and to his desire to secure justice to the North West.

With regard to Mr. Macdowall it may be a matter of surprise to some that his name was not at an earlier date brought before the public by his numerous friends. His absence, however, from the settlement, sufficiently accounts for this, and it would have been highly improper and indeed indecorous to have nominated him without consultation, and his own presence. Mr. Macdowall returned only the night before last, and yesterday he was waited upon by Mr. Charles McKay, Mr. Maier and others and after conversation upon the various matters which interest us all, and serious consideration, and in view of the very strong support which without solicitation upon his part had been tendered him he consented to come forward as a candidate. We can only say that we feel satisfied with the issue of affairs. Mr. Macdowall is not only well but favorably known, not only amongst our friends, but amongst the French origin in the neighboring settlement. He is a gentleman of experience in the country where his interests are all in it, and who knows its needs, the disabilities under which we all suffer, and who we believe will use every legitimate and honorable effort to secure for us our rights. He is not a man swayed by narrow prejudices but one who will consult the common interest of the whole country without reference to creed or nationality. This much we may indicate as touching the popular opinion regarding Mr. Macdowall, and we think that Mr. Macdowall is short-sighted, himself to the fact that the North West Council is not the fitting representative of the people. We are all aware how limited are the powers of that Council and how inadequate to meet the requirements of the people of the North West, yet it is not to be borne in mind that so far as it is the only channel through which we can legitimately and lawfully express our opinions. It is not so much the sending of a member to the Council that concerns us as the indication by our suffrages that the man we do select there is a representative of our people and must therefore be treated with respect by the Dominion Government, when he goes there to state so peacefully and firmly the just grievances of which we complain and demand a remedy. To this end we must have a representative with whom we would be as influential as hard working delegate of the people and we think we have such a man in Mr. Macdowall. If this view is correct, and it will scarcely be disputed, it is most important that all should unite as one; that even the most antagonistic elements should cohere for the common good and return with one voice the shadow of opposition the man who has been chosen, and who has been so fully accepted the shadow is not a question of politics or party which influences us and which agitates the public mind of the North West. It is a deeper question than this, a more fundamental one, how and when are we to be treated like our fellow subjects in every other part of the great and glorious Empire of Great Britain. The influence which we can exert together, either as a united body or as individuals, is very strong and we should be very much more than anything else, a thing to be considered under the circumstances, an opposition dictated by vanity and a reckless disregard of the public interest.

As will be seen by his card, published elsewhere in this issue, Dr. A. E. Porter is out in opposition to Mr. Macdowall for the representation of Lorne constituency in the North West Council. Dr. Porter would, we have no doubt, make a very fair representative, at the same time we incline to think that the interests of the section would be better sustained by the election of Mr. Macdowall and thinking that we are free to confess that our support must be of the latter. Dr. Porter is still a young man and can afford to take his time, when a wider experience and ripper judgment would make him a more acceptable candidate than at the present time.

JUMPING OF CLAIMS.

From time to time we hear complaints from those whose claims have been jumped, and in the great majority of cases these complaints are not without good reason. For the bogus settler, the man whose holding on to his claim for speculative purposes, there is, perhaps, not much pity felt, but to the actual settler who has fulfilled all the conditions—at least in spirit if not to the letter—it is, indeed, a great hardship. He should have all the protection that can be afforded him against the greed of the professional claim jumper, who, if not always a speculator himself, is often the paid agent of speculators. Against this class, the professional claim jumpers, bona fide settlers ought to have every measure of protection, and affidavits filed for the purposes of cancellation should be very cautiously received and suspiciously accepted. It may—indeed it does—often happen that a man's services for some months during the year are really not necessary on his claim, and in consequence he may seek other employment, to find, perhaps, on his return that the claim jumper has stepped in, filed the necessary affidavit and taken possession, and this, too, after the bona fide settler has expended his all in breaking up the land and making improvements. Too often is it the case that he has no means left wherewith to contest the claim that has been so unfairly and unjustly set up. In such a case he has not only been robbed of the money he invested in the fruits of his toil and what he looked happily forward to as his future home as well. There should be some better means devised, and that speedily, to protect the actual settler and to stamp out the professional claim jumper. No matter how industrious a man may be, some time or other he may meet with reverses, and knowing this who can feel safe or satisfied under similar circumstances. The Brandon Star speaks of a protective society being formed in the interests of the settler, and says of it that "it will protect honest men against dishonest men, and it will extinguish bogus settlers to the advantage of the honest husbandman."

LAND PATENTS.

It is understood that the Dominion Government has in contemplation a measure for the shortening of the process for obtaining land patents in the North West. This is just what we want. The Government hasn't treated us at all well in the matter of land patents. What ever kind of process it has been hitherto it could not by any stretching of the imagination whatever be considered anything but a lengthy one. In fact the first patents that have been issued for the North West came to hand only by the last mail, and then only some half dozen in number. And this small result, satisfactory so far as it goes, has been obtained only after endless applications. The public will be glad to learn then that the Government is waking up to the necessity of doing something in the matter, and as a result has promised a measure for shortening the process. We trust, sincerely, that the Government will do something more than contemplate the measure; that it will put it in operation at an early day is a consummation devoutly to be wished. And if the Government is in a mood for contemplating measures it might turn its attention to the consideration of one for shortening the process of obtaining our land matter. But no doubt, whenever special delegates are sent to Ottawa to lay before the Government our wants and necessities the matter of a week's mail will not be the least item in the bill of general grievances. As we said before, the Government has not treated us at all well in the matter of land patents. In fact our fair and just demands have been treated in a most cavalier fashion. We would strongly urge upon the Government to now carry out its good resolutions, and put an end to this unsatisfactory state of things, and under which we in the North West have been so long laboring. The Government may not know it but it is really retarding the progress and advancement of the country by the dilatory policy it has been pursuing. We will continue to urge that justice be done as until the Government can in decency no longer delay granting us our wishes and desires.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The World says it has good authority for stating that Lord Carnarvon will be appointed Governor General of Canada and will succeed Lord Lorne.

Returns received of the number of immigrants who settled in Canada during 1892 show that during the year ended 31st September, 175,448 persons arrived in Canada, of whom 76,728 went to the United States and 98,695 remained in the country.

It is said that the Canada Pacific directors have disposed of $40,000,000 of their new stock of the road to a syndicate of New York, London, Paris and Amsterdam capitalists, in equal proportions, at 60 per cent. of par value. This gives about $5,000,000 as the net estimate for carrying the railway from Calgary over the Rockies into British Columbia.

The Canadian Pacific Railway Company has just completed the purchase in England of fifty thousand tons of steel rails, to be used on the section of the road between Calgary and Kamloops. This division, which includes the Rocky Mountain passes, is upwards of six hundred miles in length, and must be completed in two years, from the first of May next. The contract has been given to Messrs. Langdon, Shephard & Co., who already have a large amount of work under contract for the same company. Four hundred miles of the above section is to be completed during the first twelve, and the balance within the second twelve months.

A pamphlet has been published at Ottawa by Prof. Dawson, of the geological survey, concerning the Bow and Belly river districts. The report has special reference to the deposits of coal and says there is occurrence of workable coal seams at different horizons. He proves the continuity of some of them over great areas, such as will guarantee an abundant supply of fuel. The quality of some of the fuel is such as to render it suitable for transport to a distance, and it is doubtless on this bed of coal bearing rocks in the vicinity of the mountains that railways of the North West will depend chiefly for their supply. In the vicinity of the Belly river there is estimated to be 5,500,000 tons to a square mile; Grassy Island over 5,000,000 tons; Horse Shoe Bend 4,900,000 tons; at Blackfoot Crossing no fewer than 9,000,000 tons under a square mile.

To get a suit of shoddy clothes
That frightful had were made.

Follow this advice. Do not pay $20 for a suit of clothes you can get for $13.

His friend went to the Horse Shoe Store,
And paid his thirteen dollars.
He came out in a well-made suit,

TOWN NEWS.

Billy Mitchell's new single line is to be day for Troy.

Mr. Macdonald, of the firm of Meers & Macdonald, arrived home on Monday. The mail arrived early Monday evening, good time having been made this trip.

Mr. Mahaffy arrived from below on Monday, where he had been purchasing a new outfit for his firm.

Mr. McNamara, agent for the Hudson Bay Company, land department arrived in town last Monday.

Meers, W. Carter and W. R. Good fellow arrived last week. They are both looking well after their trip east.

All changes for contract advertisements must be handed into the office, not later than Saturday evening at 6 o'clock.

We see by the Kingston Bulletin that Mrs. Cal Stewart, one of our best fellow voyagers, arrived home on the 12th Jan.

A number of horses have died on the trail lately, consequently freight for this place has been dropped at different stations along the route.

Mr. Weston, of the firm of Stewart & Weston, has arrived back home from Montreal, where he had been purchasing their spring stock. He is both looking and feeling splendid after his trip.

We very much regret to hear of the death of Mr. A. M. Tibert, job printer of Winnipeg, and an old fellow workman. Mr. Tibert was taken to his old home, Toronto, by Dr. Constantine of that city, and died the day after he reached there. It was a sad home coming for the poor fellow, who had left there but one short year ago with the brightest expectations.

On Monday, February 5th, the Hon. Kenneth McKenzie, the Senior Judge of the County of York, was struck by apoplexy at his residence on John Street, Toronto, and on Wednesday afternoon he peacefully passed away. For some months past he has been in feeble health, and has not been able to discharge his judicial functions regularly. He was almost an octogenarian.

After a lingering and painful illness the Hon. John McMurich, of Toronto, died on Tuesday, Feb. 12th. For exactly half a century he has been a continuous resident of Toronto, and during the whole of that period he has been engaged in mercantile pursuits. He has long been one of the most prominent and most widely known merchants in Canada, and up to his death was the head of the distinguished wholesale dry goods house of which he was the founder.

TOUR NEWS.

A musical performance will shortly take place.

Capt. Antrobus, of the N.W.M.P., left for Battledore on Saturday.

We are informed that a shooting match has been arranged for between Messrs. R. J. Donaldson and H. Porter, at 300 yards, $50 a side.

After the trotting match on Saturday, quite a number of pony races took place up the river front. Herts, Braden just a step to the race, as they were dangerous to foot passengers.

Messrs. Miller & Baird have dissolved partnership by mutual consent. Mr. Miller will carry on the business as before, and invites the people of this town and surrounding district will still afford him their patronage.

Mr. Gilbert Carter has got back from Troy, where he had been to look after and ship freight for the firm. He passed part of it on his way back the other side of the North Branch, and expects it to arrive here in a few days, when we will be able to procure cheaper furniture.

A choir has been organized in connection with the Presbyterian Church, composed of J. L. Johnson, G. Wardrobe, H. E. Hard, H. Hard, Mrs. Col. Spross, Miss Marshall, Miss Mack, Miss R. Mack, Mrs. H. E. Hard, Miss Hard. The singing last Sunday was a decided improvement.

An exciting trotting match took place on Saturday between Mr. Keane's Sleepy Ben and Hard & Baker's Clara, in the presence of a large number of spectators. The race was three out of five, half-mile heats. The first heat was taken by Sleepy Ben, the second and third by Clara and the fourth and fifth by Sleepy Ben. Considerable money changed hands on the event. Mr. Keane offers the horse for sale.

A public meeting was held in the assembly rooms over Walters & Fisher's store on Monday evening, to discuss the propriety of sending one or more delegates to Ottawa, to lay before the Government the wants and requirements of Prince Albert Settlement. The attendance was not as large as could have been wished. On motion Mr. Miller took the chair and Mr. F. Cockburn acted as secretary. After an interesting and animated discussion as to the ways and means it was resolved that a committee be appointed to solicit subscriptions to pay the expenses of a delegate to Ottawa and to report result at a subsequent meeting. Messrs. Jas. Treason, F. Cockburn and Thos. J. Agnew were appointed a committee for the purpose, after which the meeting adjourned.

The following is the programme of the social held in the Methodist church on the 15th inst. Part 1—Singing by the young folk, Work to do for Jesus, recited by James Eby, Clara Price, Tommy Case, Annie McFadden, John Turner, Teddy Deacon, Tommy Patterson, Eliza McLeish, Josie Deacon, Ollie Miller, Willie Eby, Alice Paterson, George Stephens, Annie Deacon, Annie Case, song by Jessie McFadden, recitations by Eliza Eby, Anna Plaxton, song by little Maely. Part 2—Song by Robert Hamilton, recitation by J. S. Slater, song by Mrs. Coombe, spoken by Rev. Mr. Nave right, song by Mr. Deacon, reading by Wm. Campbell, recitation by Mrs. Eby, song by Mrs. Plaxton, reading by R. H., song by Mrs. Keenan, recitation by Mr. Hamilton, etc. Proceeds of the evening $46.

The concert in aid of a brass band took place last Thursday evening in the Free Presbyterian church. The building was crowded with the elite of the town, who appeared to thoroughly enjoy the singing and instrumental music, which, allowing for the short time there was for preparation, was very creditable. The following is the programme: Part 1—Overture, violin and organ, Messrs. Way and Peterson; song, "Never take the Horse Shoe from the Door," Mr. T. O. Davis; duet (vocal), "Larkwood Watch," Messrs. Simpson and Johnson; song (character), "The Four Old Trumps," Mr. H. Hard; vocal (vocal), "Just Landed," Messrs. Davis and Wardrobe; song, "Sleep My Little Nise Kyed Treasure," Miss Hurd. Part 2—Overture, violin and organ, Messrs. Way and Peterson; solo, "Warrior Field," Mr. Johnson; solo, "Better Rule a Wee," Mrs. E. E. Hurd; song, "Mr. Maclean; song (character), "An Honest Irish Lad," Mr. T. O. Davis; quartet, "Over the Mountains Away," Messrs. Simpson, Eby, Wardrobe and Johnson.
